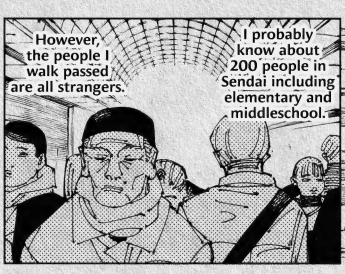
Epilogue Ozawa Yuko

Unlike when I was a kid, fireworks and beaches gradually lost their charm.
Snow's nice.
still feels special.
But snow
Me too.

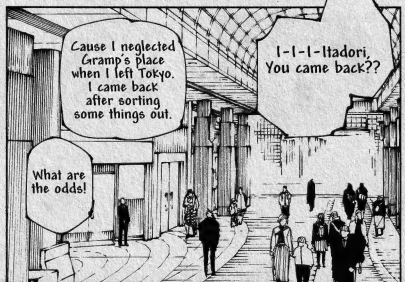


However, the people I walk passed are all strangers.
I probably know about 200 people in Sendai including elementary and middleschool.

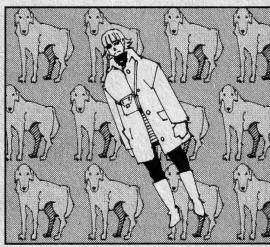
What are the chances I'd run into the one person I actually want to meet.

Even though I'm back home I didn't see any friends or classmates.
Not that they'd recognize me anyway.

Sigh
Hey it's Ozawa!!



Cause I neglected Gramp's place when I left Tokyo. I came back after sorting some things out.
I-I-I-Itadori, You came back??
What are the odds!



I didn't hear about that...
That was the heart of the explosion.
Did he get the scar on his face there?
Yeah, I was in Shibuya. I was alright.
Hehe we've got a lot to do even though we're young.
I too came to help with cleaning cause my nan's going into a care home.
Were you okay in Tokyo?
Though I heard from Nobara that you're fine.
I'm staying in Machida.
And you, Ozawa?
Haha yeah. The mysterious city Machida.
Anyways.
Actually I heard from Kugisaki that you're okay.
TENSION
FWOOSH
Ah.
Calm down. That doesn't mean Itadori was the one who asked.

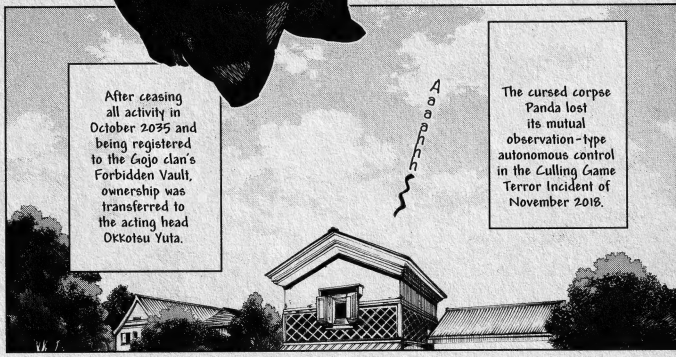
It's snowing.
Do you still like snow?
Yeah.
Strangely it still feels special.

I like snow too.
It dazzles
Especially when it covers the ground.
Innit
Makes me wanna build a snowman.
just like
my favourite person.
Wha-!!! I feel like Itadori's about to cross the bridge into becoming a man!!!
Right now!!!
Carrying on the family isn't the business of kids like us, huh.

Epilogue Panda

Ahhhh it's a Panda!
So cute
You shouldn't touch it.
It's grandad's treasure.
Ehhh. Is it cause it's cute enough to be treasured?
Apparently it's a cursed corpse.
Ew a cursed corpse?!
Get it away from me!!!
Oi! Dumbass!
flick
swap

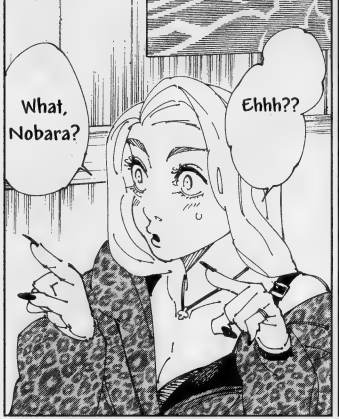
Is she really Yuta's granddaughter?
This gits's personality stinks.

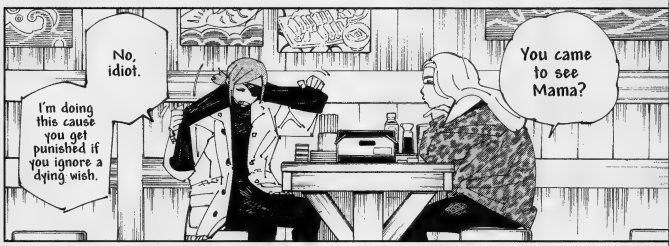


After ceasing all activity in October 2035 and being registered to the Gojo clan's Forbidden Vault, ownership was transferred to the acting head Okkotsu Yuta.
Aaahhh
The cursed corpse Panda lost its mutual observation-type autonomous control in the Culling Game Terror Incident of November 2018.

Don't yabber right next to my ear.
In 2080, it still moves sometimes.
Shut up.

Epilogue Kugisaki Nobara





She doesn't get it and doesn't bother to because I don't matter to her.

Nobara love you became a sorcerer right?
I lacked talent so Memaw only took special care on you.
Cut the crap.
Do you even know how old we are now?
The problem wasn't your talent as a sorcerer, but as a parent.

I would have been a sorcerer whether you were there or not.
You wouldn't have quit being a sorcerer if I never came into the picture.

these are menu items, grilled fish is the centre one (I think)

Nobara
You wanted me to acknowledge you, right?
woo
Is that all you want to say?
Well, too bad.
I haven't changed.
You wanted to make the lackluster mother in your memory easier to digest.
You wanted to hear things like; "sorry about back then", "you've become great", you are amazing".
woosh
Seduce rich people, drink, hook up with young men.
I'm having so much fun living my best life.
It's pathetic clinging to your parents like they're still the core to your identity.
woosh

What a light sermon. Almost could've floated away.
Huh?
Wow.
And see something really funny.
I genuinely don't care about you. I came to make-good of a dead person's will.
What are you talki-
Right, Memaw?
gasp

Take your time.

M-
M-Mother.

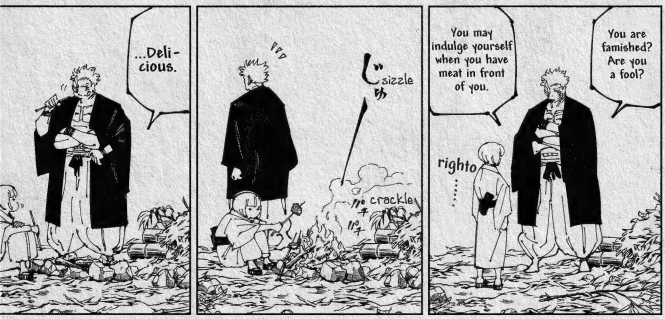
Epilogue – Uraume

※ an old form of reindeeration that uses blocks of ice in a hut

back and forth

back and forth



Who taught you this?
I didn't really learn, I was just bored.
It's made by cooling red meat at a low temperature and drying it in the wind.

Are you capable of managing humans?
.....?
It's contigent on the induvidual.
Regardless, it stands as an expectional dish.
Lord Sukuna, even though you are close you don't freeze.

Haha. The same is true for you too, Uraume.

You remained unfrozen, despite your being around me.
